

What is Ron Van Clief Cup?

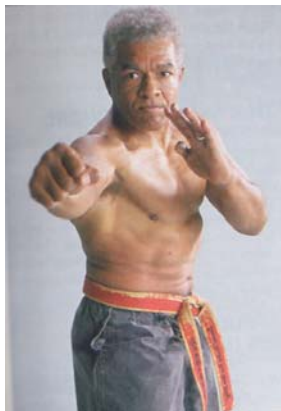

Ron Van Clief Cup is a championship that is promoting the principles of the American Martial arts. Is providing an opportunity for practitioners of all styles to meet and compete against each other in the spirit of cooperation and harmony. The Tournament rules are specifically formulated to cover all styles and not favor any over the others.

What is American Martial Arts?

The modern American Martial Arts encompasses the essential principles and traditional philosophies of the Korean, Japanese and Chinese forms, while systematically students are training in techniques according to the principles of physical science. The practice of martial arts is a combination of mental, physical and spiritual training. In USA Martial Arts is the fastest growing sport with over 30,000 schools across the country.
